

House Resolution No. 348

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who have made admirable contributions to the education of today's students as they prepare for roles as lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Carol Hough of Wellington has attained considerable distinction as a secretary in the Wellington-Napoleon R-IX School District, a vocational calling to which she has devoted forty-eight years; and

Whereas, on Saturday, February 5, 2005, in the Wellington-Napoleon Community Building, Carol Hough will be given public honors and accolades by the R-9 Kids First Foundation for her lifetime of service to the school district; and

Whereas, the first secretary hired by the Wellington-Napoleon R-IX School District, Carol Hough subsequently served as the secretary for the School Board and then as the secretary for the Superintendent; and

Whereas, Carol Hough graduated with the Class of 1953 in Wellington after participating in school choir, yearbook staff, and girls basketball; and

Whereas, the daughter of Frances and the late Edwin Huenefeld, the former Carol Huenefeld met her future husband, Marvin Hough, as a student and married him on September 26, 1954; and

Whereas, the marital union of Carol and Marvin Hough, now deceased, was richly blessed down through the years by their sons, Kevin, Kerby, and Kacey; grandchildren; and great-grandchild; and

Whereas, Carol Hough is justifiably proud of the role she fulfilled when the Wellington-Napoleon R-IX School District attained AAA Accreditation with Al Gilliam as superintendent and then Accreditation with Distinction in Performance in 2000-2001 with Mary Wood as superintendent:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long, productive, and ongoing career of Carol Hough with the Wellington-Napoleon R-IX School District and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Carol Hough of Wellington, Missouri.
